or relate stories of the day's catch with our friendly staff. Enjoy a game of horseshoes, or take a stroll down to the bank to see what's biting.

Join us in our Alaskan backwoods paradise, 70 miles NW of Anchorage and just south of Denali National Park.

Accessible only by boat or plane, this remote location offers some of the best fishing in the world in one of the last pristine wilderness areas left to explore.

You'll find all five species of Pacific Salmon, Rainbow Trout, Dolly Varden, and Arctic Grayling, with King Salmon up to 60 lbs thriving in these healthy creeks and rivers. Novice and experienced fishermen alike will appreciate the individually-tailored services of our knowledgeable guides who will help make your fishing adventure on the Talachulitna River an experience of a lifetime. Let the grandeur of the Alaskan backcountry be the setting for your next fishing retreat at Talvista Lodge, Talaview Lodge, or Talstar Lodge.
